General Info:

Atmosphere - We hold to a conservative position on attire and conduct. We reserve the right to ask any camper to change dress or behavior that may be deemed inappropriate. There is no physical contact between campers. There are separate swim times for girls and guys. Avoid wearing clothing with inappropriate advertising.

Guy's clothing - All shirts must have sleeves; no tank tops. Jeans or khakis may be worn throughout the day. Shorts need to come to the middle of the knee, but should not be worn for evening services. Nice, causal clothing should be worn to the evening service. Recreational clothing needs to be comfortable, yet conservative.

Girls Clothing - All clothing worn for daily activities as well as for services should come to the middle of the knee. Loose-fitting slacks are acceptable for daily activities. Skirts, dresses, or nice causal clothing should be worn for evening services. Shirts with sleeves are recommended; no tank tops or spaghetti strap tops should be worn. All swimsuits should be one piece.

Things to bring - Sleeping bag or bedding materials, pillow, tennis shoes, Bible, pen, spending money, camera, flashlight, personal accessories, swimsuit, extra clothes for getting dirty, fishing pole and tackle, insect repellent.

Things to Leave Behind - Do not bring food or snacks, cell phones, electronic and media devices, magazines, alcohol, cigarettes, non-prescription drugs, knives, firearms, paintballs, or fireworks.

Personal items - AGBC is not responsible for lost, broken, stolen or unclaimed personal property. Items not requested within 12 days will be donated or discarded. Requested items will be sent at the cost of the individual.

From the Director

On behalf of thousands of camp friends I want to encourage you to bring a group of young people to Amazing Grace Baptist Camp.

AGBC is a great camp with a conservative philosophy that is designed to help local churches reach young people for Christ. We love seeing lives changed by the Bible.

It's never too late to begin setting calendar dates for summer camp. We always suggest that you register as early as possible to guarantee the week that works best for you. The two early bird dates are designed to help cut the cost and promote camp in a timely manner. Please make plans to join us next summer as we unveil our theme, "Arcade Legends 2017."
